FATAL FIRE

In Chicago in Which Fifteen Are Reported Lost.

Special To The REPUBLICAN:

CHICAGO, March 25—It is reported that fifteen persons perished in a big fire which destroyed a large furniture store in Chicago this morning. One girl who was employed in the store was killed by leaping from the third story window as she believed this was her only means of escape.

Forty employes succeeded in escaping from the burning building.

Union Meetings.

The Men's Union Meeting will be held at the First M. E. church at 7:30 Sunday evening. The address will be given by the Hon. Lawrence McTurnan of Indianapolis. This is the first meeting that has been held in the evening and a large crowd is anticipated.

The committee has made arrangements whereby a union meeting will be held for the women at the same hour at the First Baptist church. The pastor, Rev. F. M. Huckleberry will deliver the sermon. The ladies of the various churches were anxious that this meeting be held and a large number will be present.

Improvements.

Albert Luedtke, of Sparksville, is putting in the stone foundation for the new Christian church at Medora. The building is to be of brick and stone and is expected to cost about $6,000, exclusive of the interior furnishings.

The workmen are constructing the concrete pit in the addition to the interurban car barns at this place. The building will be completed ready for use before many weeks.

The front of the Matt building on Second street was being painted today. The cottage residence of John M. Lewis, Sr. on N. Chestnut street, which has been lying idle for the past year or two, is being moved to Glenlawn where it will be improved and made ready to be occupied by a family.

Rebekah Social.

The March committee of the Rebekah lodge gave their regular monthly program and entertainment at their lodge rooms Thursday evening. Miss Bertha Meseke was chairman of the committee and right well did they do their work. The young ladies of the entertainment committee were dressed in Irish costumes with white dresses and green caps. One of the prominent features of the entertainment was an old fashioned spelling match.

An Irish banquet was served. About eighty-five members of the lodge were present. The dining room was decorated with shamrocks and tiny green snakes. In the center of the table was a large basket of potatoes and pipes. The novelty of the program was very much enjoyed.

Baptist Observer.

The first issue of the Baptist Observer, under the new management, was published in this city Thursday. The issue was an Easter number. The Observer has a circulation of over 3000 subscribers. The paper is now published by Jay C. Smith, editor and manager.

Mrs. George Meyers, of W. Brown street, who has been confined in the city hospital for the past few weeks, was able to be removed to her home this morning.

PENNSYLVANIA CO.

To Raise Track North of Seymour
—Other Improvements.

E. J. Kron, the new superintendent of this division of the Pennsylvania line, continues to do things. Before one job is scarcely completed plans are ready for the work to go right onto another. As soon as the work of laying eighty-five pound steel on the main line here is completed a report comes that the program includes extensive improvements in the north part of the city.

The company has always been seriously handicapped here by the grade just north of Fourth street. Freight trains pulling south have frequently been stalled there when it was necessary to divide the train and after pulling part of it down make a trip back for the rear end of the train. As a result trains have frequently been delayed for a half hour or more. This trouble has also been increased by the fact that all trains have been compelled to stop for the Southern Indiana crossing and as a result the south bound trains have no momentum with which to help them up the grade.

To remedy this difficulty the track will be raised from the top of the hill at Fourth street to the curve near River-view cemetery. At the highest place the grade will probably be raised as much as five or six feet and it will amount to as much as two or three feet as far south as the Southern Indiana crossing.

This construction work will necessitate the employment of a large force of men and in that way will be a great help to the laboring men at Seymour and the other towns along the line.

It is understood that the work is to begin very shortly. It is also reported that a large number of new bridges will be constructed on the main line between Indianapolis and Louisville. These moves are in the direction of improving the facilities for making faster time with the passenger trains.

Another new improvement which is expected to be made here is a watch tower and an interlocking switch at the junction with the Southern Indiana and to avoid the necessity of stopping the trains at the crossing. It is thought that the time saved in the moving of heavy freight trains, and fast passenger trains as well, will justify the extra expense of employing a watchman.

It is still the general understanding that extensive improvements are to be made here at the freight station soon and possibly this year. The plans include the extension of the freight building north to South street, the enlargement of the offices, as well as the storage rooms, and the extension of the loading platform.

The whole Pennsylvania system is undergoing extensive improvements. The improvements of the Pennsylvania lines are among the most extensive of any of the railroads in the country.

The local team has been practicing during the past few days and will be able to put up a strong game against the visitors. The North Vernon team is said to have a good team this year, and an interesting game is expected tomorrow. For the past several years the North Vernon team has been considered one of the best high school teams in southern Indiana, having won games from a number of teams in this part of the state.

FARM SCHEDULE

Farmers To Be Furnished Advance
Copies Before Census Begins.

Within a short time the farmers of Jackson County will receive a copy of the Advance Farm Schedule, containing the questions which must be answered for the census. By sending these schedules in advance of the time when the enumerator will call the farmers will have an opportunity to familiarize himself with the questions that will be asked by the government.

A great increase in the accuracy of the census returns from the farmers, a considerable saving of the working time of the farm enumerators, and the removal of much of whatever misapprehensions and prejudices may exist among farmers with regard to the census are the important results expected by the United States Census Bureau to follow the use of the Advance Farm Schedule, which has been adopted and will be circulated, through the rural postmasters, among the farmers a short time before the actual census taking.

The employment of this advance schedule is a distinct innovation in census methods. It is the logical and practical outcome of the Census Bureau's persistent effort for some time past to give the farmers a clear and comprehensive preliminary knowledge of the Farm Census questions and to induce them to keep written records of their farm operations and equipment in readiness for the call of the enumerators who begin April 15 next.

Four million copies of the schedule will be printed, and the distribution of them among farm owners and tenants will be intrusted to the farm enumerators soon after they are commissioned, about April 1!

Postmaster-General Hitchcock has promised the assistance of his department in the effective distribution of the schedules, and he will issue instructions relative thereto to the rural postmasters.

They will be required to address and forward to the farmers receiving mail at their offices the advance farm schedules supplied them by the enumerators.

In a note to farmers on the front page of the schedule, Census Director Durand states:

"In accordance with the act of Congress, the census of the population and farms of the United States will begin on April 15, 1910. On or soon after that date an enumerator will call at your house for the purpose of obtaining the required information concerning your farm.

"Many of the questions which will be asked you concerning the equipment and operations of your farm can not be accurately answered by you without considerable thought and the making of careful calculations or estimates. Therefore, this form has been sent to you in advance so that you may study the questions at your convenience and have the answers written down before the enumerator comes.

"You are earnestly requested to read this form and instructions carefully, to write down the answers to all questions that apply to your farm, and to keep it until the enumerator comes. By doing this you can save yourself much time and contribute greatly to the success of the agricultural census.

"Besides the information concerning your farm, the enumerator will also ask you the names, ages, and other facts concerning the members of your household."

INFORMATION

Regarding Mortgage Exemptions
Given By State Tax Board.

The board of review of Jackson county has received a copy of a circular letter, which has been mailed by the state board of tax commissioners to each of the boards of review in Indiana, calling attention to the provisions of the mortgage exemption law and urging that they take the time and trouble to acquaint themselves thoroughly with the law, opinions of the attorney general thereon and court decisions.

Under the law an exemption up to and including $700 may be had by a mortgage on any piece of mortgaged real estate, the amount of the exemption to be deducted from the current assessed valuation of the same.

Particular attention is called by the board to the following provision of the law: It is the duty of the board of review to pass on the validity of every exemption filed; firms and corporations (limited or otherwise) and corporations are not entitled to exemptions under the law; in no case can the exemption exceed more than one-half the value of the real estate; the word "mortgage" as used in the law includes mortgages held by non-residents of the state, as well as school fund mortgages, and mortgages held by building associations; a bond for deed, a vendor's lien, a ditch assessment or a street assessment is not a mortgage and does not entitle the owner of land to exemptions thereunder; a husband can not make an affidavit for his wife, nor she for him.

Some time ago information was given out as to who could take advantage of the mortgage law, and this letter has been issued in answer to other questions which have been presented to the state board.

Fail To Advertise For Bids.

Reports of field examiners to the State Board of Accounts show that common errors among the trustees throughout Indiana are failures to advertise for bids for school supplies and the practice of overdrawing funds. In many townships advisory boards are failing to perform their duties, according to reports, which show that in numerous instances there is no record showing that the board has met and made appropriations.

SOUTH OF HOADLEY'S GROCERYMoney Saving.

Twice a year the Cooperative Building and Loan Association starts a new series of stock, the next series beginning Monday, April 4. This gives every citizen of Seymour and Jackson county a splendid opportunity to save money in small amounts each week, and at the same time have the money earning dividends from the time it is paid in. The plan is this:

Every stockholder pays in each week twenty-five cents for each share he owns. These combined payments are loaned by the Association and secured by first mortgage on real estate. The interest on these loans is paid monthly. Every three months this interest and other profits accruing are distributed to the credit of each series of stock according to the amount that has been paid in on the series. The amount of dividend on each series goes to the credit of each stockholder in the series. This is repeated every three months until such time as the payments by the stockholder and the dividends amount to one hundred dollars. Then the stock is matured and the stockholder draws out the full one hundred dollars per share.

At the opening of the new series is the best time to take stock and begin regular saving of money where it will earn additional money all the time. Besides the regular money-saving habit is a good one to cultivate.

See the secretary, Thos. J. Clark, at once and arrange for as many shares as you wish to carry. Opera house block.

NOT IN THE RACE

Robert G. Tucker Will Not Try For Place at Head of Ticket.

[Special Correspondence.]

Indianapolis, March 24.—R. G. Tucker of Indianapolis, who has been considering the matter of running for the Republican nomination for secretary of state, has definitely announced that he will not be a candidate for a place at the head of the 1910 Republican state ticket. Mr. Tucker is a newspaper man, and has been writing of politics for many years. He is in a position to command the friendly aid of many workers in the Republican party. He was actively identified with the candidacy of James E. Watson for governor two years ago, and it is said that he remains out of the race for secretary of state this year on the advice of Mr. Watson. The fact that Mr. Tucker recently had a conference in New York City, with former Senator J. A. Hemenway, may have had some bearing on his decision to draw his name out of consideration in connection with the nomination for secretary of state. Mr. Tucker has been very close to Messrs. Watson and Hemenway, and in the past has been guided by them, in things political, to a large extent.

Word comes out of the south that John W. Brady, of Princeton, brilliant lawyer, candidate for congress, and much-talked-of political leader, will in all probability head the Republican state ticket this year. That is what Mr. Brady's friends are saying, and it is reported on good authority that Mr. Brady will announce himself for secretary of state within a day or two. Republicans who have watched Mr. Brady's career are of the opinion that his friends are justified in being confident of his power to win the delegates. Another strong man who may enter the race for secretary of state is John Morris, of Ft. Wayne. It is pointed out by Mr. Morris' supporters that he already has made a wonderful record as a vote-getter in his section of the state, and that he would strengthen the ticket appreciably. In a race for judge some years ago Mr. Morris ran within 200 of victory while the judicial circuit was going 1,500 Democratic on other offices. Either Mr. Brady or Mr. Morris would be highly acceptable to the party.

One of the strong men among the Democrats who has declared himself on Governor Marshall's plan for a state convention endorsement of a Democratic candidate for United States senator, is State Senator Will A. Yarling, hold-over. Senator Yarling will have a vote in the next Democratic legislative caucus. He comes from Shelbyville. Senator Yarling says: "Democracy has no sounder principle than that which holds that the will of the majority should be executed. If the desire of the people can better be ascertained by the convention route, I am favorable to it. Conventions can be and frequently are dominated by a few men. I think it would be better for each party to hold a state primary election and put the choice of a candidate for this high office squarely up to the people. It is to be regretted that this matter was not proposed at a much earlier date. While I am not opposed to the plan, I doubt the wisdom of having our convention take the step suggested by Governor Marshall."

Senator Yarling is a temperance Democrat, and stood out boldly in favor of county option at last winter's legislative session. He is against Thomas Taggart, and would oppose any Taggart man for United States senator. Yet he is not easy in his mind as to the governor's plan of procedure against Taggart. It is uncertain such as that displayed by Senator Yarling that gives confident arrogance and brave assurance to the Taggart men. Senator Yarling admits that the fight for the people has been taken up too late. He says in effect that the coming Democratic state convention will be dominated by a few men, and intimates strongly that the result of the governor's scheme will be to expose the Democratic party to a cross-fire and inner discord and strife. In the meantime it becomes more and more certain that the Democratic state convention, controlled as it is by the Taggart-Shively crowd, will refuse to forestall the Democratic legislative caucus on the senatorial matter. And on the other hand the movement to force T. R. Marshall forward as the senatorial candidate gains force every day.

The Indianapolis Star takes notice of the inevitable logic which may make Marshall senatorial nominee of the Democrats against his will. The Indianapolis Sun, another Beveridge paper, indirectly refers to the same possibility when it declares editorially that Senator Beveridge would prefer to make the senatorial race against one of his peers, rather than to be elected over a weakling or chosen against a nameless quantity. Politicians are saying that this reference has in mind none other than Governor Marshall. No matter how much the governor protests that he would be proving recreant to his trust as governor if he ran for the senatorship, there will continue to be talk of the executive as a senatorial possibility. And for that matter, it is known that some of Governor Marshall's close friends would like to see circumstances so adjust themselves as to permit him to go from the statehouse to the national capitol with a toga in his suitcase.

Politicians are saying that this reference has in mind none other than Governor Marshall. No matter how much the governor protests that he would be proving recreant to his trust as governor if he ran for the senatorship, there will continue to be talk of the executive as a senatorial possibility. And for that matter, it is known that some of Governor Marshall's close friends would like to see circumstances so adjust themselves as to permit him to go from the statehouse to the national capitol with a toga in his suitcase.

The Indianapolis Star takes notice of the inevitable logic which may make Marshall senatorial nominee of the Democrats against his will. The Indianapolis Sun, another Beveridge paper, indirectly refers to the same possibility when it declares editorially that Senator Beveridge would prefer to make the senatorial race against one of his peers, rather than to be elected over a weakling or chosen against a nameless quantity. We want that many regular subscribers to our paper. In 1909 we had a daily circulation of 90,246, therefore, we need only 9,754 new readers to reach the mark.

THE INDIANAPOLIS NEWS

The circulation of The Indianapolis News is unique in two particulars. The paper is delivered directly into the homes of more than 94 per cent. of its subscribers; and the circulation, per capita of the population of the city in which it is printed is greater than that of any other paper in the country.

The Indianapolis News, established in 1869, was the first high class two-cent evening paper in the west. It now publishes six regular editions, of from sixteen to twenty-eight pages daily; has the Associated press and United Press services; 700 special correspondents, covering the news of the state and country; a modern art equipment, and a large and capable editorial staff. Its mechanical equipment, complete in every way, includes twenty-two linotype machines, two sextuplets and two double-deck quintuple color presses, with a total output of 120,000 twelve page papers per hour.

THERE'S A REASON!

In twelve years The News doubled its circulation; there must be a reason for it, and that reason is given in a few words:

It's the leading newspaper in Indiana.
 It's the biggest and best.
 It's independent.
 It's clean and instructive.

PROBING DEEP.

Hotchkiss, Investigator
 of Insurance Graft,
 And B. B. Odell.

"YELLOW PUP" FUND SUBJECT OF PROBE

Investigation of New York In- surance Graft Case.

New York, March 24.—That the "yellow pup" fund investigation under way in the office of State Superintendent of Insurance Hotchkiss in this city is to be thorough and complete was shown when Mr. Hotchkiss issued a subpoena for George F. Seward, president of the Fidelity and Casualty company.

The bill of 1901, imposing a tax upon the reserves of fire and casualty companies, which Elijah Kennedy, the fire insurance lobbyist, has admitted he paid $13,811 to kill, was of even more importance to the casualty and bonding companies than to the companies writing fire insurance. It appears that the casualty companies handled their own funds in Albany, and Mr. Hotchkiss wants to find out what legislators or politicians got the money.

The activities of William H. Buckley in 1904, at the time of the Grady re-insurance bill and in subsequent years were also gone into. It appeared that the year the Grady bill went through, Governor Odell changing his veto, Buckley got $27,000 out of the fire insurance companies for his services at Albany. It was only his third year as a lawyer. Before that he had been third deputy superintendent of insurance. Buckley enjoyed a retainer of $6,000 a year from the New York Life for some years.

Requisition For Packers.

Trenton, N. J., March 24.—Prosecutor Pierre P. Garven of Hudson county has applied to Governor Fort for requisitions for the extradition of Louis F. Swift of Swift & Co., and Edward Morris of Morris & Co., two of the beef packers indicted by the Hudson county grand jury for conspiracy. The governor promised that he would give the matter consideration.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

MARCH 27, 1910
 REVIEW LESSON.

GOLDEN TEXT:—Jesus went about all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and preaching the gospel of the kingdom, and healing all manner of sickness and all manner of disease.

Having the option of a review or a resurrection lesson, we choose the Easter lesson, as there is nothing so grand as His resurrection, by which He was declared to be the Son of God, with power and without which preaching and faith are vain and no one ever has been or can be saved. The resurrection, however, must include all of His earthly life that preceded His death. His life as the Son of Mary, the seed of David according to the flesh. Matt. 1 gives the royal line of David's descendants through Solomon to Joseph, who became the husband of Mary, while Luke 3 gives David's descendants through Nathan to Hell, whose son-in-law Joseph became by his marriage to Mary, and thus Jesus became heir to David's throne.

The quarter's lessons might be outlined as, first, the genealogy and birth of the King; second, the visit of the Magi and the flight of Joseph and Mary to Egypt and their return to Nazareth; third, the herald of the King and the declaration of the Father concerning Him; fourth, the King's victory over the great adversary, His testimony and the calling of some disciples; fifth to seventh, the laws of the kingdom; eighth and ninth, some samples of the nature of the kingdom.

Now, as the kingdom was postponed by the rejection and murder of the King we in this age must know the power of His resurrection if we would walk worthy of Him and manifest His life in these mortal bodies. The resurrection of the Messiah was plainly foretold in Ps. xvi and xxii, Isa. lxx and elsewhere. It was wondrously foreshown in Isaac being given back to Abraham from the dead in a figure (Heb. xi, 17-19). In His teaching the Lord Jesus Himself many times spoke plainly of His death and resurrection, and the great truth of Christianity is that we have at the right hand of the Father in heaven a risen living Christ, truly a Man and truly God, in whom alone is salvation, the only Judge of all mankind and the only One who can set up a kingdom of righteousness on the earth.

The most horrible thing that ever happened on this earth and that which shows the desperately wicked nature of the human heart was the cruel murder of the Son of God, but God raised Him from the dead and gave Him glory and will yet give Him dominion over all the earth, and His redeemed shall share the kingdom with Him.

His disciples never received His words that He was to be crucified and rise from the dead the third day (Matt. xx, 17-19), but some of His enemies remembered them (Matt. xxvii, 62, 63). His mother and some of the other women who ministered to Him remained by His cross to the last, and some of them after His body was buried returned and prepared spices and ointments and rested the Sabbath day according to the commandment, intending on the first day to bring the spices and anoint His body (Luke xxiii, 55, 56; xxiv, 1). When they come to the tomb on the first day morning early they find the stone rolled away; they see an angel, who tells them that He is risen and that they must go quickly and tell His disciples. When Mary Magdalene saw the stone rolled away she ran to tell Peter and John, who ran to the sepulcher and saw for themselves and returned, but Mary remained near the sepulcher, weeping, till Jesus Himself, whom she thought at first to be the gardener, spoke to her and called her by name. When she and the other women told the disciples that He was risen from the dead they believed not, and some thought it an idle tale (verses 11, 13, 14; Luke xiv, 11), giving Him occasion to upbraid them with their unbelief and hardness of heart. Many who now are told that the same Jesus is coming again think it an idle tale and believe not, not knowing the Scriptures nor the power of God and perhaps forgetting that Jesus said, "O fools and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken" (Luke xxiv, 25). The angels believe and desire to look more fully into these things (verses 5-7; I Pet. i, 12). Dr. Scofield gives in the margin of verse 6 this rendering: "Jesus ye seek—the Nazarene, the crucified. He arose. He is not here." He also gives in his notes on Matt. xxviii the order of the events of that morning and also the order of the different appearances during those forty days. Note in verse 7 of our lesson how Peter is mentioned by name, the true disciple who had treated Him the worst, denying with oaths that he knew Him. How true it is that weakest lambs have largest share of this tender Shepherd's care! However weak and unworthy you may be, remember that "having loved His own He loved them unto the end" (John xiii, 1).

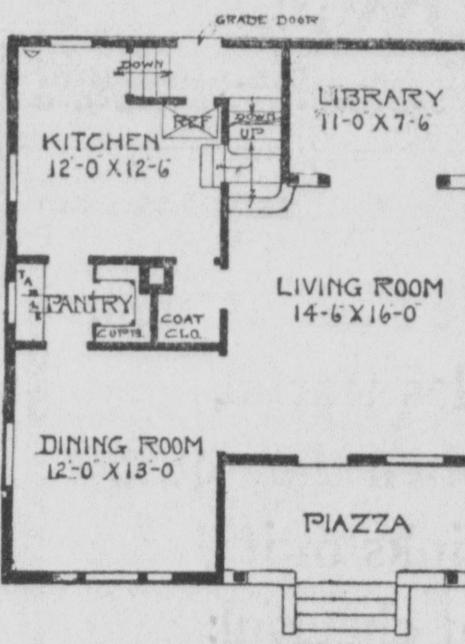

A mere knowledge of the facts of His life and death and resurrection will benefit us nothing unless, knowing these things, we truly receive Him as our own personal Saviour and place our whole trust as lost people in the efficacy of His great sacrifice. Then the joy of being redeemed will lead us to obey with gladness His command in verse 15, counting upon a fulfillment of verse 20. Our daily life will be "serving the living and true God" and our attitude "waiting for His Son from heaven" (I Thess. i, 9, 10).

A combination stairs leads from both the living room and kitchen. There is also a combination underneat, an entrance to the kitchen and cellar stairway. The living room is large and adjoining is the library or den. The dining room is placed in the most pleasant part of the house, the front, where one can view the street. Access to the kitchen is through the butler's pantry. Size twenty-eight feet wide and thirty-two feet deep. Cost to build, exclusive of heating and plumbing, $2,400.

The evasive answers which have been given by Thomas Taggart when asked if he is a candidate for United States Senator, would indicate that he is, at least, in a "receptive mood" as Mr. Bryan would express it. It seems that the former national chairman is still the leader in democratic politics in Indiana, in spite of the anti-Taggart crowd, that is working to oust him from his position of leadership, and may decide to wear the senatorial toga himself.

Through Traction Service.
According to a statement given out at the meeting of the Central Electric Railway Association at South Bend, Thursday, through traction service from Louisville to South Bend will be inaugurated about June 1. The special car which made the first trip, was run at an average speed of about thirty miles an hour. On new tracks the average speed was about twenty miles per hour, but in some places the car was run a mile a minute. The trip was very satisfactory to the traction men, who believe that the service will become very satisfactory to the traveling public.

PRESIDENT BRAND IN PRISON

Head of the Immediately Pending Common Council Given a Sentence For Grafting Which May Hold Him For Twenty Years—Dr. Williams, Leader of Select Council, Publicly "Broken" in Court and Compelled to Pen His Resignation After Humiliating Confession of Graft—Further Indictments Expected Today.

Pittsburg, March 25.—In the graft cases sensation has followed sensation, culminating in open court in the public "breaking" of Dr. C. C. Williams, one of the present leaders of the select council. In addition to the humiliation of having to confess that he had freely taken money for his vote in the present council, Dr. Williams was compelled to publicly pen his resignation as a member of the council and hand the same over to District Attorney Blakely. Judge Frazer then suspended sentence. Earlier in the day Councilman George Anderson fell in a dead faint in front of the court under the withering fire of Judge Frazer, and was revived with difficulty and sentence was suspended. Councilmen Schultze, Fisher and Shevlin also confessed in court and sentence was suspended. Councilman Cochrane tried to explain to Judge Frazer how he had gotten $500 in one case and $600 in another, while other plain councilmen went along with $50. The court decided to hold Cochrane's case under advisement. William Brand, president of the immediately pending common council, is in Riverside penitentiary today, having been rushed there last evening. Though the sentence imposed on Brand, on which he has now entered, is for but three and a half years he went into prison with the information ringing in his ears that he would likely be required to stay there twenty years because of his stubbornness in not giving the information demanded of the district attorney's office. Further indictments are expected today.

LAYING HEAVIER RAILS.

Pennsylvania Road Finishes Work on Roadbed For Faster Schedule.

Thomas Plunket, roadmaster on the Louisville division of the Pennsylvania lines, was here from Columbus this morning with a gang of about twenty-five men laying new eighty-five pound steel rails here on the main line. The track in front of the passenger station was taken up just after the morning passenger trains went north. Besides Foreman John Disney and his section gang, of this city, William Davis and his gang were here from Chestnut Ridge and workmen from Crothersville and Jonesville. The work of relaying the track with eighty-five pound steel had been completed from Indianapolis to the crossing here opposite the Adams Express office some time ago and the heavier steel had also been laid on the south end of the line. The work that is being done here completes the work between Indianapolis and Louisville and will put the track in better shape for the faster schedule which is proposed to be inaugurated over this division of the road some time in the near future. Other improvements will be made besides laying new and heavier steel and the road will be well equipped both in roadbed and rolling stock for moving heavy trains at a high rate of speed with reasonable safety.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

SLATE CARRIED RIGHT THROUGH

House Minority Shows Its Desire for Harmony.

CHAMP CLARK'S GREAT VOTE

Out of the 140 Votes Cast in the Minority Caucus to Select Members of the New House Rules Committee, the Missouri Leader Received 125 Votes—Underwood of Alabama Came Next, Then Dixon of Indiana, and Fitzgerald of New York Was Given Place in the Interest of Harmony.

Washington, March 25.—Representatives Champ Clark of Missouri, Oscar W. Underwood of Alabama, Lincoln Dixon of Indiana and J. J. Fitzgerald of New York, were named, at peaceful caucus of the house Democrats last night, as the minority members of the new rules committee of ten agreed upon as the climax of the big row of last week. This was the slate informally approved by the Democrats during the day.

Opponents of Fitzgerald, who was not wanted on the committee by some of the radicals because he came to the assistance of the Republicans with his "annex" to the old rules during the initial fight on this proposition on the first day of the special session of congress, tried, before the caucus convened, to muster sufficient strength to beat him. But their cause was hopeless. Minority Leader Clark and most of the other Democratic leaders who think there is a chance of the house going Democratic this fall and who demand harmony even at the price of a fight, worked openly for Fitzgerald, whose election, although he got less votes than any of the four, was never in doubt.

There were 140 Democrats present at the caucus. In order to keep things running as smoothly as possible, it was agreed on motion of Rainey of Illinois, who heretofore has not put forth much effort as a harmonizer, that there should be no nominations, but that each member present should vote for the four members he wanted on the committee. Champ Clark got 125 votes; Underwood, 102; Dixon, 99, and Fitzgerald, 98. Next was Slayden with 69, then Hammond with 68, and Sulzer with 50. A score of the faithful received complimentary votes of one and two each.

DR. WILEY GIVES THE SECRET OF HEALTH

It is a Crime to Have a Cold, He Says.

Ithaca, N. Y., March 25.—"Every man is intended to live a certain length of time; if he doesn't it is a case of suicide or homicide. It is a crime to have a cold. The first business of an architect is to see to it that his building will furnish enough pure air for the people who will occupy it."

These were some of the statements of Dr. H. W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry, department of agriculture, in a lecture to Cornell students. He said:

"Sanitation has been defined as the function of the sciences of engineer-

PHILADELPHIA'S BIG LABOR FIGHT

Conditions That Brought About the Street Car Strike In City of Brotherly Love. Possible Consequences.

By JAMES A. EDGERTON.

WILL the Philadelphia strike precipitate the long looked for nation wide strike and bring on the supreme test of strength between organized capital and organized labor? The action of the Pennsylvania State Federation of Labor would indicate an affirmative answer. Several other questions present themselves, however, which affect the larger one. Will the local trades unions throughout Pennsylvania approve the state federation resolution calling on President Samuel Gompers to order a national strike? If they do, will Mr. Gompers heed the demand? In case he does, will the Philadelphia traction magnates back down before national strike is ordered?

There is a large element of doubt as to the answers to all of these questions. After the enthusiastic action of the state federation several conservative delegates said the convention had been swept off its feet by the appeal of President W. D. Mahon of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Railway Employees. The local unions will not be subject to Mahon's eloquence and will pass on the question in a cooler frame of mind. As to the action of Gompers, intimations are afloat that he may consent to a national strike, but they are only rumors. Even if he is so minded he could not act without his executive committee, who might wish to refer so momentous a proposition back to the state and local bodies throughout strike may seem, a few reflections show that it is possible. The rapid spread of the sympathetic strike in Philadelphia is significant, and the enthusiastic action of the Pennsylvania state federation is still more so. The manner in which both capital and labor are pouring messages and money to their respective sides in Philadelphia indicates the importance with which they regard the fight. Altogether the situation resembles a box of tinder that a chance spark might set into flames.

An amusing side of the affair has been presented by the efforts of May or Reburn and Police Director Clay to minimize the strike in Philadelphia. Official reports were seriously made that only 18,000 men were out when the labor leaders and the newspapers agreed that there were in the neighborhood of 100,000, a number that has since been swelled to approximately 150,000. The obvious partiality for the corporate side displayed by these officials and their refusal to permit the workmen to hold public meetings might have been overlooked, but what about this plain attempt to deceive the public? It is bad enough to deny to Americans the right to assemble and voice their grievances, a right guaranteed by the constitution, and this in effect is what Reburn and Clay have done. I will not say that prevaricating and being caught at it is worse than denial of free speech, for nothing could be much worse than that, but at least it is a coarser and more vulgar form of moral obliquity. To put it in the land. As to the possibility of the traction companies backing down, the answer to that is purely conjectural. So far they have been rather obstinate. Yet they now have the financial and moral support of organized capital elsewhere. If the other employers of the country were threatened with a strike, would they withdraw this support and bring pressure to bear on the Philadelphia traction magnates to arbitrate? A nation wide strike at this juncture would be a most serious proposition—just how serious a few facts may indicate:

What National Strike Might Mean.

At present the whole nation is in a more or less perturbed state over the question of high prices. This has created special irritation in labor circles, which has been augmented by the jail sentences of Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell and Frank Morrison, the general officers of the American Federation of Labor, now pending on appeal before the United States supreme court. The tariff, insurgent movement, conservation row, craft inquiries and other causes have produced political unrest, which indirectly affects the industrial situation. To add to all the complications, there is a glut of unassimilated elements in all the larger American cities.

Under these conditions it is easy to imagine the possible effects of a confirmation of the jail sentence of Gompers, Mitchell and Morrison and a nation wide strike. Almost anything might result from such a combination, even to serious rioting in the cities and a political and industrial revolution.

However improbable a nation wide

ROCKEFELLER'S GREAT GIFT.

Opinions of Public Men on Oil King's Foundation Scheme.

In response to impressions of the gigantic philanthropy outlined in the plans of the John D. Rockefeller foundation the following public men, among a number, gave their views:

Nathan Straus, the noted philanthropist of New York:

I feel that the establishment of the Rockefeller foundation is the most important single step ever taken in human progress from primitive simplicity to highly developed civilization.

Heretofore the means and measures that have resulted in human progress have been sporadic, incomplete and unsystematic. It has remained for Mr. Rockefeller to conceive the stupendous plan and provide the resources to marshal, co-ordinate and organize the forces of progress. The vast work that he has been doing for humanity and that has been too little appreciated is completely undone and overshadowed by this new creation of his philanthropic heart and brain, which, I believe, will be found to be the greatest manifestation of his genius for constructive organization and will rank in history as the most remarkable example of farseeing statesmanship.

The measure of the Rockefeller foundation will not be only the millions that he will devote to the work, but the breadth of its scope and its perfect adaptation to the yet unknown needs of future generations. To give requires merely money; to plan for humanity as Mr. Rockefeller has done betokens inspiration born of profound and sympathetic study of human needs.

Dr. Emil G. Hirsch, the noted Jewish leader of Chicago:

Here are some suggestions to Mr. Rockefeller: Teach the poor how to live, teach wives how to cook, establish an endowment fund for young couples who want to get married. We are overeducated. Let this education be along material rather than spiritual lines. No one can calculate the harm done to the race by untaught, poor young mothers. I would establish funds to educate them, both before and after the birth of children, so that the next generation will grow up strong and well.

President Emeritus Charles W. Eliot of Harvard:

Whether this new plan of incorporating all charities and educational funds now supported by the Rockefeller millions will prove a beneficial advance over the present methods I cannot say. A great deal depends on the person or persons who administer this vast fund.

It is just as possible to throw money away in this manner as in any other, and many undeserving charities may impose on Mr. Rockefeller's agents. I am not in favor of applying the principles of incorporation to such an undertaking for my mind that is to commercialize the matter too much. There is also another matter to be considered. It is possible for such a corporation to discriminate unconsciously against many deserving charities. Such a vast scheme of charities as proposed by Mr. Rockefeller may also have the effect of paralyzing gifts from other persons who may consider all charitable and educational wants to be filled by the Rockefeller foundation. With these restrictions and comments I believe that the Rockefeller foundation will be a great benefit to all humanity.

Black Hand Squad For Chicago.

Chicago is to have a foreign police squad. Twenty-five men will be examined in the Sicilian language, and all who pass that test and the physical examination will be put to work. This plan has been evolved by Chief Steward after consideration of a number of schemes to provide detectives to work on the Black Hand and other Italian murder cases which have proved impossible of solution by the regular police force.

ETNA'S OUTBREAK

Streams of Lava Now Threatening
Populous Mountain Towns.

Catania, March 25.—Several new craters are forming on Mt. Etna, making since the eruption began, about a dozen new openings that have appeared. The lava has united in one vast stream twenty-four feet high and 1,200 feet wide. It is steadily growing in volume as it advances, carrying destruction in its path, and is now within four miles of Belpasso and three miles from Nicolosi. The latter town, however, is surrounded by hills and is not threatened with destruction, whereas Belpasso and Borello are exposed to danger. If the eruption continues the last two named places will be invested within two days.

The village of Niddio, in the neighborhood of Nicolosi, has been completely covered, and many huts and farmhouses have been destroyed. The inhabitants of the villages of the southern slopes of the mountain are in a state of panic, but they nevertheless cling to their homes, refusing to forsake them until the last moment.

STRIKE SEEKS UNAVOIDABLE

Coal Miners and Operators Can't Get Together.

ARE STILL AT A DEADLOCK

Each Side Even Now Said to Be Laying Plans For the Strike Which Is Believed to Be Sure on April 1—General Manager of Pittsburg Coal Company's Mines Created a Stampede Among Operators by Granting a Concession, but Miners Had a Counter Proposition and the Matter Is Still Unsettled.

Cincinnati, March 25.—The operators and union miners of Ohio, Indiana and western Pennsylvania, who for nearly three weeks have been holding daily conference here over the demands of the miners for an increase of 10 cents per ton in wages, a Saturday half-holiday and other concessions are still at a deadlock, but the first real concession by the operators has been made. George W. Schleiderberg, general manager of the Pittsburg Coal company's mines, has formally offered the miners an advance of 5 cents per ton.

This almost caused a stampede among the operators. The miners, however, answered with a counter proposition and the matter is still unsettled. The sub-committee will report its disagreement to the general committee and the differences will finally be left to the executive board of the United Mine Workers of America for settlement.

It is said that the joint scale committee will be ready today to report on the joint conference final disagreement. Then each side will begin laying plans for the strike which is believed to be sure to follow on the first of April.

DIDN'T PUSH MATTER

Editors Decide to Keep Hands Off in Factional Dispute.

Indianapolis, March 25.—Fifty Democratic editors assembled here under a call for a meeting of the executive committee of the Democratic Editorial Association to discuss the suggestion of Governor Marshall that the Democrats name a candidate for United States senator at their coming state convention. Friends of Thomas Taggart were busy with the editors preceding the meeting, and when the committee met it was conceded by the friends of the governor that it would be impolitic to push the matter before the state convention, and the subject was not discussed at the meeting. Those who favored it said that an attempt to name a candidate over the opposition of the Taggart wing of the party would be sure to result in a factional fight.

DYING IN HOSPITAL

George McDonald, Noted Indiana Gambler, Shot by Policeman.

Lafayette, Ind., March 25.—George McDonald, one of the best-known gamblers in Indiana, was mortally wounded by Patrolman John Weibers and is dying in a hospital. The shooting occurred at the home of Maud Ryan.

Weibers says that he went to the house to sell the woman a horse, and that after trying the animal on a short drive they returned and McDonald came running across the street and attacked her. He separated them and then McDonald turned on him with a threat to kill him. Weibers fired and the bullet entered McDonald's breast.

Colonel Wanted to See Him.

Washington, March 25.—It has become known that Ambassador Oscar S. Straus left Constantinople a couple of weeks ago for Cairo. At the time of his leaving announcement was made that he had gone to meet his old chief, but today a friend of Colonel Roosevelt said that Mr. Straus undertook the trip to Cairo in response to a cable dispatch from the former president.

May Go to Jury Today.

Marion, Ind., March 25.—Testimony in the Krauss divorce trial has ended and the arguments of the attorneys is in progress today. Mrs. Rae Krauss, in charge of an attendant, has been returned to Indianapolis, where she is confined in the Indiana women's prison. The case will probably be given to the jury late this afternoon.

The Physicians Perplexed.

Richmond, Ind., March 25.—Physicians are perplexed over the case of Eddie Loftus, the boy whose skull was punctured by a steel umbrella rib several weeks ago. There is no chance for recovery, physicians say, but the vitality of the lad is regarded as extraordinary.

Jail For Editor Havill.

Mt. Carmel, Ill., March 25.—Orra F. Havill, editor of Havill's Every Morning, has been convicted on one count, on the charge of sending obscene matter through the mails. The judge imposed a fine of $200 and sentenced him to serve six months in the Champaign county jail.

WOULD REVISE ENGLISH COURSE.

State Board of Education Recommends Grammer For High School.

State Superintendent of Public Instruction, R. J. Aley, is considering the appointment of a committee consisting of members of the board of education, members of the Association of Teachers of English in Indiana Colleges and representative teachers of English in the high schools to prepare a specific revised course in English to be taught in this state.

The recommendation comes at the request of Supt. C. N. Kendall, of Indianapolis, Supt. F. B. Cooley, of Evansville, President William Bryan, of Indiana University, and others, and was favorably passed upon at the board meeting last week.

Principles of study recommended by the state board are the teaching of at least one year of practical grammer in high school, that serious attention be given to composition and that no student be allowed to graduate until he has shown ability to meet a satisfactory test in the English language. It is suggested that more time be given to literature.

GOOD WHEAT.

Reports Indicate That There Will be a Large Crop.

Reports from the wheat growing sections of Indiana, almost without exception, gives the information that the crops for 1910 will be equal to any ever grown in this state if present conditions continue.

There is an increase in the acreage sown, estimated all the way from 15 to 25 percent, larger than for last year, while the heavy snow of the winter, together with the intense cold, kept the tender plant in good condition, after its growing start last autumn.

In some sections of the state reports show wheat sown early in the fall was not as healthy looking as that sown later in the season. In only one report was the presence of fly mentioned.

FIELD EXAMINERS.

Will Complete Work in Jackson County Next Monday.

W. M. Aikman, of Washington, and Horatio Harryman, of Bedford, the two field examiners who are examining the books of the township trustees under the direction of the state accounting board, will complete their work next Monday. They began the examination about sixteen days ago.

They have not made public the nature of their report which must come through the state accounting board. It is understood that they will report to the state board on Tuesday, and the result of their examination will probably be made public a short time afterwards.

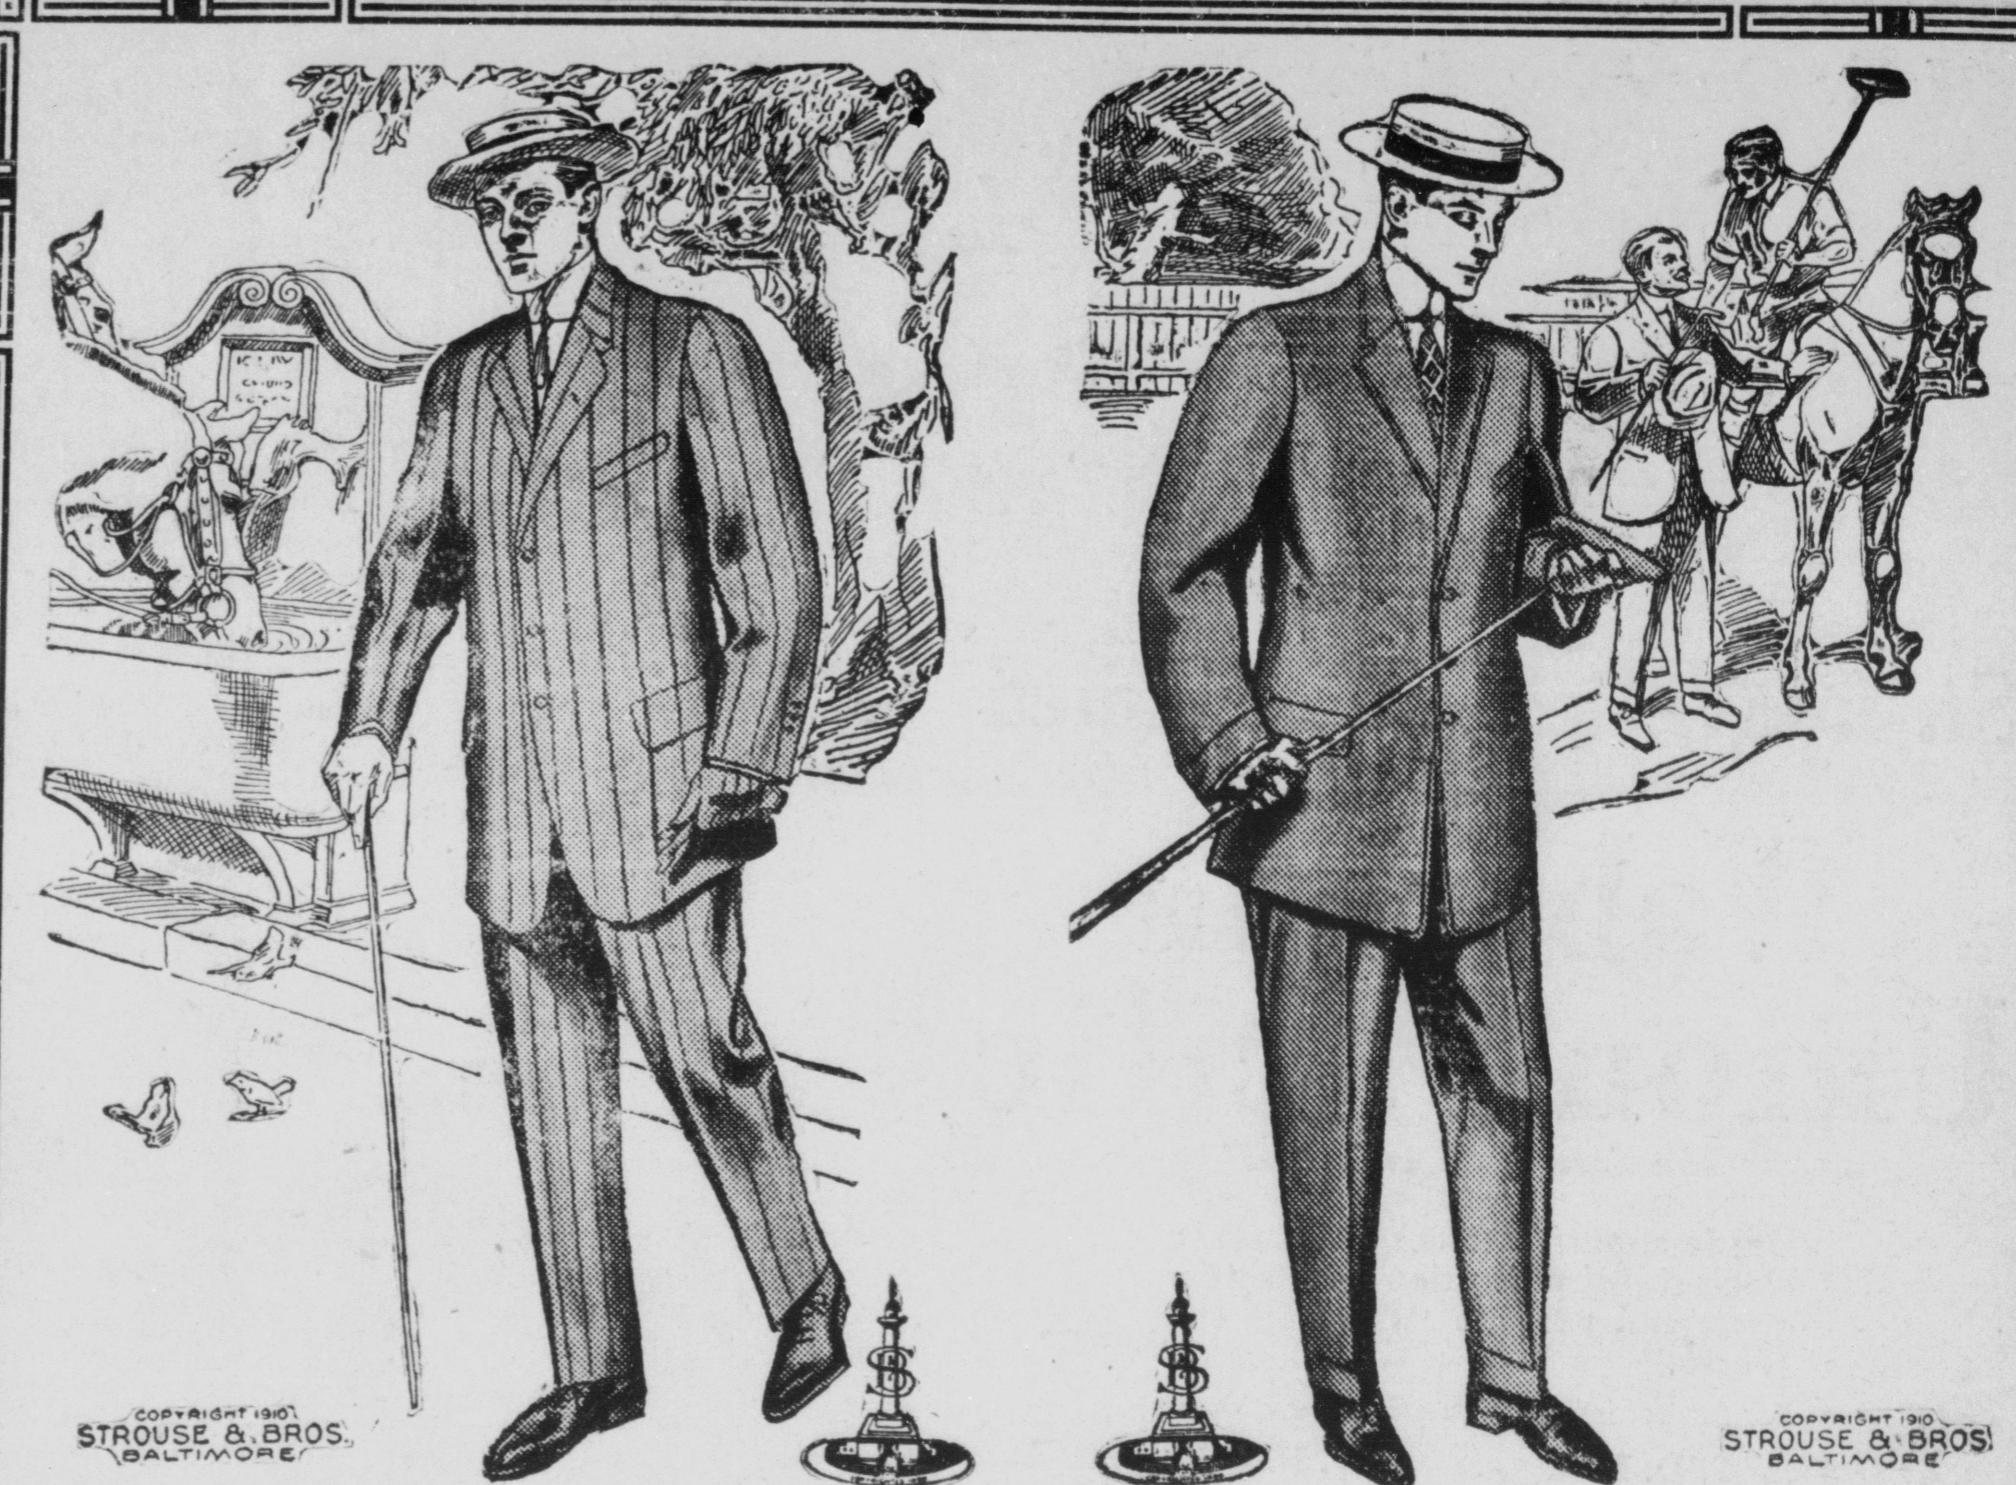

PRINCIPAL ADDRESS.

At Bedford Baptist Conference Will be Delivered by Rev. F. M. Huckleberry.

Rev. F. M. Huckleberry, pastor of the First Baptist church, of this city, will deliver the principal address at the all day conference of the Bedford Baptist Association, which will be held in Bedford next Tuesday. The subject of his address will be "Indiana For Christ." Rev. Huckleberry is a clear and logical thinker and an able and forceful speaker, and is in demand for public lectures and addresses.

The meeting at Bedford is for the purpose of discussing plans for raising the budget for missions.
